THERE'S NOTHING ABOUT RECRUITMENT AND JOB BOARDS
THAT WE DON'T KNOW.

The Challenge

Job boards are typically sold on a model where the more you buy, the cheaper it gets. However, these packages require you to commit to a 12-month deal. While this works well for established businesses, start-ups face unique challenges:

Uncertain job volumes

As a new agency, you don’t know how many jobs you’ll need in your first year.

Job board selection

It’s not always clear which boards will work best for your sector.

Evolving focus

Your target sector may shift or expand, requiring different job boards over time.

Administrative burden

For solo recruiters, managing job board postings can detract from essential sales activities.

Our Solution

We’ve developed flexible, pay-as-you-go products designed to address these challenges while providing:

Competitive pricing

Leveraging our buying power to secure rates typically unavailable to individual agencies.

No long-term commitment

No tie ins. No contracts. You will only pay for what you use.

Reduced administration

Simple monthly invoicing for the products you’ve utilised; plus support writing your adverts & filtering the responses.

How it works

Your agency can mix and match products as needed, progressing through stages that align with your growth.

Express Job Advert Bundle

Get additional candidates fast!

Run multiple campaigns across multiple job-boards, with one account

CV-Library, Indeed, Monster, Reed & TotalJobs

- ✓ Leading UK job boards: Increase candidate applications by promoting your vacancy across the top UK job boards and their network of sites, giving your vacancy maximum exposure.
- ✓ Broader reach: Taking advantage of 5 job boards marketing spend, your vacancy will be seen by a more diverse, relevant, larger audience, quickly; resulting in more placements.
- ✓ Time saving: No need for you to write the advert, post the job or filter the response. We do it all for you, leaving you with just quality candidates.
- ✓ Consistent message: An express job advert bundle ensures consistent messaging across different websites, written by a specialist in recruitment advertising.
- ✓ Cost effective: With no commitment or lengthy contract this ad hoc service means you could be receiving candidates within 4 hours of the advert request, at a cost that represents bulk buying prices.
- ✓ Streamlined campaign management: Instead of managing separate campaigns for each site, you can monitor a single campaign that spans across various sites, making it more efficient. You can analyse your ROI and compare how the job boards perform for a specific vacancy.
